Students in the DNP program are expected to:

- Exhibit the highest level of professionalism in their attitude, demeanor, and communications.

- Maintain an atmosphere that is free of dishonesty in order to promote academic rigor.

- Be self-motivated learners that possess a sense of scholarly inquiry and intellectual curiosity.

- Adjust their home and work lives in order to allow adequate time for study and program completion.

- Complete each course in the DNP with a grade of B or higher. Failure to complete each DNP course with a grade of B or higher will result in dismissal from the program.

- Travel to campus for the intensive sessions scheduled each of the first three semesters. Additional face-to-face meetings may be required during the practice and dissertation courses, per the course faculty or dissertation chairperson.

- Become familiar with the TUN and SON catalogs and agree to abide by all TUN and SON policies, procedures, and guidelines, which may be updated from time to time. Students will be notified, in writing, of any changes to pertinent policies, procedures, and guidelines.

- Make an appointment and discuss their progress with their faculty advisor at least once per semester, or as required by the faculty advisor.

- Show completion of a minimum of 480 of graduate level practice in previous nursing education OR complete an additional 480 hours of practice in the DNP program.

- Meet all requirements outlined in the DNP Program handbook.

- Meet all course and program deadlines. Failure to meet stated deadlines may result in a prolonged course of study or dismissal from the program.

- Notify the DNP Coordinator of any anticipated changes related to academic progress or program completion.

I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand the expectations of DNP students at Touro University Nevada SON and that I agree to abide by all expectations throughout my program of study.
